

Adam

Andy Robison

1. Oh! Ad - am was a bus - y man, nam - ing all of the 2. Oh! Ad - am was a mar - ried man, though he first was
 3. Oh! Ad - am was no cave - man, he knew which was the 4. Oh! In the im - age of God was man, Ad - am first and then crea - tures. He be - came a type of Christ; but lone - ly. God said, "Sleep," and then took a rib; bad tree. He knew well what God had said, wo - man. O - ver a - nim - als they did reign, with a diff - rence in fea - tures. He brought sin in - to the formed it in - to a la - dy. Love then o - ver - whelmed his but a ser - pent de - ceived Eve. She gave him the fruit to not e - volv - ing from ver - min. They were giv - en all the world, but Christ takes it a - way. Oh, Ad - am was a soul and he would cling to her. Oh! Bone of bones and eat, and that was that that day. Oh! He was boot - ed from earth to rule and work and play. Oh! Made much high - er than man of sin, but Christ the Man of for - give - ness. flesh of flesh; fam - 'ly one of the liv - ing.

 Par - a - dise; sweat - y work was his re - pay. all the apes, We are glor - ious - ly hu - man.

© 2009 Andrew J. Robison IV