

All I Want

A.R.

Andy Robison

All I want, all I wish, all I think should hap-pen to me may not be the will of the Lord. But it's my life, it's my song, it's my sto-ry that I'm writ-ing, and I think it should be my own. At least that's how I feel till I see Je - sus. At least that's how I feel till I see Je - sus on the cross. At least that's how I feel till I see all He's giv-en me. And then I pack up all my dreams and count them loss. For

Chorus

He is writ-ing my song. Now He is the auth-or of my My Lord is sto-ry. He knows the way, the way that's best for me. And now I know my life is not my own.