

Reasons I Believe

A.R.

Andy Robison

After verse 1's repeat, D.C. Al Fine

Unison

Peop - le of - ten ask me, "Why do you be - lieve?
(for D.C.) When the peop - le ask me

Why do you be - lieve and fol - low Je - sus?"

That is when I tell them the rea - sons I can give for know - ing that my Sav - ior with God in heav - en lives.

1. { I be - lieve that Je - sus who was cru - ci - fied; Just I be - lieve He showed Him - self to wit - nes - ses, To 2. { I be - lieve they preached Him in Je - ru - sa - lem As I be - lieve dis - ci - ples suf - fered sword and flame; They

I be - lieve

as the pro - phets pro - phe - sied; He those who would at - test to His true re - sur - rec - ted Son of Man; and glad - ly bore the pain and shame to left the tomb un - oc - cu - pied, with an - gels in His stead. And pre - sence in the midst of them, the ma - ny who be - held. So e - ne - mies could not re - pri - mand the truth of all their claims. And mag - ni - fy the Ho - ly name of Christ, their ri - sen Lord. This one great fact of hist - o - ry I'll cling to all my days, That one day I may see Him, When, with Him I am raised. That one day I may see Him, When, with Him I am raised.